

Etz Chaim of Teaneck Rabbi Daniel Feldman

Schedule for July 18 - 20
Parshat Pinchas

Candlelighting – 8:06 p.m.

It is with great joy that we announce that beginning this week, davening on Shabbos and Yom Tov will be in the family room. Everyone is asked to enter through the door off the driveway.

Sunday minyanim will continue to be at Care One.

Also, Care One has instituted a nightly mincha/maariv minyan and it would be greatly appreciated if all who are able can help to make this minyan. This coming week, davening will be at 8:10 p.m.

We would like to thank Congregation Beth Aaron for allowing us to borrow a beautiful Aron. Their generosity is much appreciated.

In consideration of the neighbors, please try to avoid bringing your car to davening on Friday evening as parking may be limited on the street.

Rabbi Feldman recently published an article the OU's Jewish Action magazine, summer issue, just published. If you'd like to see the article:

CareOne, the kosher rehabilitation and nursing center located at 544 Teaneck Road (four blocks south of Holy Name Hospital), needs volunteers to ensure the continuity of their Shabbat minyanim, which their residents look forward to each week. Davening times are generally the same as our own davening times, EXCEPT for Mincha/Kabbalat Shabbat which is at 7:15 p.m. each erev Shabbos.

Daily Mincha/Maariv Minyan at Care One

Care One has begun to have a nightly Mincha/Maariv minyan in addition to the Sunday evening one run by Etz Chaim. We hope that everyone can come out to support this new endeavor. Davening times will be similar to our Sunday evening mincha/maariv minyan. Davening this coming week is at 8:10 p.m.
